

SMITH DECLARES HE'S IN RACE FOR THE U.S. SENATE

Announcement Follows Poll Which Shows Him He Will Control Caucus.

IGNORES MR. MARTINE.

Makes No Mention of Rival Selected for Place at Primaries.

Former United States Senator James Smith Jr. of Newark last night announced that he was a candidate for the seat in the United States Senate which will become vacant on the retirement of Senator John Kean.

The announcement follows a poll which convinces the ex-Senator that he will control the caucus.

There is no reference in the statement to the fact that James E. Martine of Union County had been chosen for the Senate by the Democratic voters at the September primary elections, or to Dr.
Wilson's advocacy of Martine and his criticism of Smith. It included a declaration of principles, among them:

"A prompt revision of the tariff downward, especially with reference to the necessities of life.

"An early submission to the decision of the people of the proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution providing for the election of United States senators by popular vote.

"A revival of our merchant marine on a basis that will be fair and equitable.

"The maintenance in time of peace of a small army, and at all times of a navy adequate to protect our country's interests and honor.

"The fortification of the Panama Cannel when completed."

Interest now attaches to the next move Dr. Wilson will make, on how far he will go in using "every honorable means" at his command to secure the election of Mr. Martine.

CLEMENT CLARKE MOORE DIES AT HOTEL BELMONT.

Only Two Days With Pneumonia—Son Had Planned to Wed Next Week.

Clement Clarke Moore of No. 57 East Fifty-fourth street, after an illness of only two days, is dead from pneumonia at the Hotel Belmont. He and his family had gone to the hotel for the winter.

The funeral will be held to-morrow morning in St. Bartholomew's Church, Madison avenue and Forty-ninth street.
Mrs. Moore and one of her sons are convening from a protracted illness.
The marriage of another son, Barrington Moore, to Mrs. Mabel Moore, is announced for Dec. 20 at the home of Miss Morris's mother, Mrs. L. Cass Ledyard, No. 27 East Seventy-second street.
Mr. Moore was sixty-seven years old and had lived in New York and vicinity all his life. His grandfather inherited the greater part of the old village of Chelsea. Mr. Moore is survived by a widow and three sons.

GIRL A ROMANCER.

Tale of Kidnapping Called Baseless and Man May Be Arrested.
After investigating the story of fifteen-year-old Mildred Kayle of No. 26 Delancy street, that she was kidnapped and chloroformed in front of Gouverneur Hospital yesterday morning and dumped unconscious in the hallway of her home with a gag in her mouth at midnight, Detective Crystal of the Delancy street station, decided that the girl had concocted the tale, and reported that he believed she was with a moving picture operator during this time. He said he will probably make an arrest to-day.

The girl is at home and shows no sign of any misadventure.

Cuba's Army Chief Resigns.
HAVANA, Dec. 16.—President Gomez to-day accepted the resignation of Major Gen. Pino Guerra as Commander-in-Chief of the Army. The relations between the Commander-in-Chief and the President have been strained for some time, and Guerra recently offered his resignation, which, however, at the time President Gomez declined to accept.

$1,000 REWARD

Build With Cement

Lumber is getting scarce and high. It is too inflammable for structural uses. Its upkeep is expensive. In comparison with the granite-like strength of concrete it looks rather flimsy. Even stone and brick will crumble in time. Concrete is everlasting.

Your house may be out of date in ten years if it is not built of Portland cement. It is the modern building material, destined to supplant wood, brick and stone.

Visit the Cement Show

Anybody abreast of the times will be intensely interested in seeing the varied uses of concrete exhibited at this First Annual Cement Show in New York. No one intending to build can afford to overlook them. There is no better place or opportunity to study the wonderful progress being made in fireproof construction.
